HISTORY

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE LEADERS AND CONCERNED BRETHREN'S GROUP

Called together in October 1972 by Bro. O.A. Johnson, a group of area church leaders which included Brothers John R. Flowers, Orum L. Trone, Sr, Earl J. Crocker, Isaac Cathey, John H. Mayberry and Carl E. Swanigan became the organization's charter officers.

In our building process, those invited to work with us had a few basic questions to which they desired answers. They wanted to know what kind of group it was and what was it to do? Our answer has always been that it is an organization which is evidenced by officers for stability, order and perseverance. Its purpose was and remains to provide structure and a forum whereby matters of the church may be discussed in order to reach consensus based on Scripture. The hallmark of the group's reason for existence has been to endeavour "to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace" (Ephesians 4:3). So pronounced has been that mission of LCB the scripture (Psalm 133:1) was early in our existence adopted as our theme. The theme: "Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity." Any group which has purposes and goals often asks itself, "How well are we doing what we are suppose to be doing?" In every area of trial the desired level of accomplishment has not been achieved. But, thank God as we surveyed our achievements, we were assured that the will of God has been done. ...READ MORE ONLINE...
